

Kentucky K-12 public school A.C.T.S. order form

Through the Norton Center A.C.T.S. (Arts for the Classroom Ticket Subsidy) Program, a number of free or deeply discounted tickets are available to K-12 public schools in Kentucky, providing access for students to attend and engage in high-quality and professional performing arts programs presented at the Norton Center for the Arts in Danville.

Tickets are given on a first come, first serve basis. Book early to ensure your students can take advantage of this opportunity! Public school teachers may apply to receive an $8 subsidy per ticket — making each ticket to Norton Center Student Matinees completely FREE!

Tickets sold or requested through the A.C.T.S. Program are equivalent to purchased tickets for any other performance: When your order form is submitted, those tickets are held and unavailable for other guests.
